John W. Davis Predicts "Progressive Congress"

LARGE PRESIDENT NOT IN ACCORD WITH LIBERAL POLICIES

Fifth Statement Made Public Today By Candidate

ALLEGES EFFORT TO BUY ELECTION

Leads Excerpts From Manufacturer And Gold Star Mother

(Associated Press)

NEW YORK, Nov. 1.—In the first statement of the series, being issued by John W. Davis, democratic candidate for president, for the purpose of summarizing campaign issues, he claimed today that "the country needs a congress pledged to promote and remedial liberal legislation."

The statement further declares that Senator LaFollette has no chance of election and adds that "it is evident that President Coolidge has not been elected, and will not be in accord with the wishes of such a congress as it is being elected."

During the campaign I have attempted to discuss the issues before the country with the greatest frankness and candor. I have done my utmost to place my position on all the questions of the day clear cut. I have pledged myself if elected, to do everything in my power to open up the markets of the world for our products as business men of our country can hope for real and durable prosperity on any other basis. As manufacturers and merchants cannot prosper unless the farmers prosper, I have pledged myself to continue the policy of strengthening the position of labor.

None of these can be accomplished without honesty and courage, and without complete accord and cooperation between the president and congress. There is no doubt that the country will elect a congress pledged to progress, and remedial liberal legislation. It is admitted now that Senator LaFollette has no chance of election. It is evident that President Coolidge has not been elected and will not be in accord with its high purposes.

Do the people want legislation or do they want vetoes and obstructions? For four years of deadlock between president and congress. From the many expressions that are coming in from all classes in every state and from the endorsement received from various organizations and from members of all parties, I am convinced that the people do want remedial legislation, that they do desire harmonious relation between congress and the president and because they realize they can assure these things only by voting at this election for the state and national candidates of the democratic party.

Mr. Davis made the charge last night in a speech that the republican party was trying to buy the election. He read the letters from Joseph R. Grindy, who raised $650,000 in Pennsylvania and contrasted what he called the spirit of materialism, which collected money from protected manufacturers, with the spirit of idealism shown in a letter of a "gold star" mother, who had sent her dead son's insurance check to the democratic end.

He read freely from the letters of Mr. Grindy, which already have been

APPEAL MADE FOR STATE AMENDMENT

Meininger Calls Voters' Attention To the Drainage Plan

By W. J. Meininger
Secretary-Manager of the Albany-Decatur Chamber of Commerce

Under a proclamation of the governor of our state a vote is called for at the general elections on November 4th on a constitutional amendment permitting the promotion and creation of drainage districts and the sale of such bonds.

This is of especial interest to the individual farming sections as the favorable passage of the amendment will be the means of permitting any given section to provide for the drainage of its wet lands, thus making them tillable and valuable.

Alabama has had a law to this effect though it was recently declared unconstitutional.

The purpose of the amendment is to make it possible for a group of neighbors to organize and drain their lands at their own expense on long time and easy terms of payment.

I understand Morgan County has many thousands of acres of highly fertile land which are practically worthless without adequate drainage and without the successful carrying of the amendment it will be impossible for any given neighborhood to so reclaim these lands. It should be distinctly understood that neither the county nor the state would have any tax imposed upon them in the event the amendment carries, but that such expense or tax would be solely for account of the individual or given district which organizes and votes it up on themselves.

An appeal is being made by the farming districts to give them this right and the public at large is urged to support this amendment so that the owners of these and smaller lands may have the privilege of draining their lands if they so desire.

Owners of Cars To Keep Old Tags

Owners of automobiles who have purchased new license tags were warned today to keep their old tag and not throw it away, as someone else may pick it up and place it on a car other than that of the original owner. Tags are used to identify cars, it was pointed out, and any one discarding an old tag may be the victim of an embarrassing case of mistaken identity.

FATHER AND SON BANQUET WILL BE FEATURE OF WEEK

National Movement To Be Observed Here For First Time

PLAN IN EFFECT SINCE 1907

Arrangements Are Being Completed for the Banquet

The local Y. M. C. A. is, for the first time in its history, introducing to the public of Albany-Decatur, the "Father and Son week."

It has been national in scope since 1907. Several days ago The Daily gave out the purpose of the movement. Today the public will be made acquainted with the growth of the father and son idea.

"Many fathers are so busy making a living that they are failing to make a life either for themselves or for their boys," says a statement issued by the Y. M. C. A. today. "The boy problem is being overshadowed by the more serious problems of keeping alive the ideals of the American home. Institutions are relieving the home from much responsibility that God intended only for the parent where the family gather, after the day's work. The open fire has been supplanted by steam radiators. The morning meal which was the time of prayer is now in relays. The noon-day meal is usually eaten by mother alone. The only meal when most of the family meet is at evening time, and often this meal is eaten with a rush in order to meet some evening engagements, or else father's nerves are in such a condition that all are glad when the meal is over and each seeks his own circle of friends. It is strange that many fathers do not know their own boys, or boys their fathers under such conditions? The friend outside the home is, many times, better acquainted with the boy than those responsible for his entrance in the world."

To bridge this widening chasm between father and son, and especially at the time when the boy most needs his father, during the teen period, the unique plan of having father and son take supper together was thought out by B. M. Russell, Boy's Work Secretary of the Providence, Rhode Island, Y. M. C. A. in 1907.

"The news of the Providence experience spread rapidly throughout the nation especially during the men and religion movement when some of the teams advocated the father and son idea. Associations in churches in all parts of the country rapidly adopted the plan of bringing fathers and sons together in special church services, banquets, and other programs."

"In 1913 Robert E. Lewis, General Secretary of the Cleveland Association, through a committee of representative business and professional men, sent out a form letter to some five hundred mayors urging a New Year's proclamation for fathers and sons to get together and become chums and companions."

"During 1917, Richard L. Flynn, city boy's work secretary for Detroit then located in Kansas City, Mo., suggested to the boys' division of the International committee Y. M. C. A. the plan he had been experimenting with in Kansas City of making the father and son event a week's program. Edgar M. Robinson, senior secretary of the boys' division, international committee, immediately passed on the suggestion to the state and local boys' work secretaries of the country and secured a most hearty approval of the plan of having a national father and son week. The first national observance of national father and son week was held in 1918. The movement received a great impetus by this national observance and increased interest has been manifested every year by

MASS MEET OPENS 'TRAINING SCHOOL' AT FIRST BAPTIST

Preliminary Session To Be Held Sunday Afternoon

CLASSES SET FOR EVERY EVENING

Delegates Expected To Be Present From All Over the County

A mass meeting at the Decatur Baptist church Sunday afternoon will be the first of the sessions of the fourth annual Training school of the Morgan County Baptist Association, conducted under the leadership of J. E. Lambkin of Montgomery, state secretary of the Alabama Baptists Young People's Union.

Mr. Lambkin, accompanied by Mrs. Lambkin, is expected on an afternoon train Sunday. The principal address at the mass meeting will be by Mr. Lambkin, who is expected to outline the claims and purposes of the B. Y. P. U. program for Christian training.

The members of the school faculty will be introduced Sunday afternoon and general arrangements will be made for the beginning of the regular work Monday. The school will open in the evening soon after 6 o'clock with devotional exercises led by Miss Ethel Lanier and at 6:15 the following teachers will begin their work of instruction on the subjects opposite their names:

Dr. W. P. Reeves, Senior B. Y. P. U. Manual.
Mrs. J. C. Caldwell, Intermediate B. Y. P. U. Manual.
Miss Kate Frazier, Junior B. Y. P. U. Manual.
Dr. C. C. Davison, "The People called Baptists."
J. E. Lambkin, "Pilgrims Progress."
Mrs. J. E. Lambkin "David the Master Poet."

A "fun" period and supper follows the first division of the school each evening.

Officials of the Morgan County B. Y. P. U. state, that last year a similar school to the one to open Sunday enrolled 125 and that 250 students are expected to attend the school beginning next week.

Hallowe'en Party At the Y. M. C. A.

The Hallowe'en party for the Hosiery mills girls and Christian Endeavor of the Presbyterian church at the Y. M. C. A. was unusually successful. About 75 guests attended the festival, which was featured by striking costumes and beautiful decorations. A musical program was rendered, consisting of solos by Mrs. Frank Morrow, and Miss Mae Tisdale and a violin solo by Mrs. Harry Wyatt accompanied by Mrs. George Jackson. The real treat of the evening came with the dancing of Miss Pruitt of the Albany Hosiery Mills. The hostess of the evening was Mrs. Black social secretary of the Y. M. C. A.

CAR DAMAGED

The car of Mr. Hamilton, a tobacco drummer crashed into the "silent policeman" on the corner of Bank and Cain streets, Decatur, early Friday evening. The car, a Ford roadster, was turned completely over, badly damaging the top and fenders. The car had to be lifted off of Mr. Hamilton and a companion. Neither was seriously injured.

Regiment Ready To 'Guard' Niles As Clash Looms

CELEBRATORS GIVEN WARNING BY MAYOR

Hallowe'en Generally Observed Quietly In Twin Cities

Fourteen youths visited Mayor Carswell this morning in connection with over indulgence in Hallowe'en celebrations. The boys were turned loose after a severe reprimand from the mayor, charging them to go forth and live more.

The Decatur officers used strategy in persuading the serenaders to return home and redeposit their soap supply on their mothers' racks. No damage was reported from the business sections of that city.

However, a glance through Albany this morning gave evidence that the boys taken in were nobly represented by others who escaped the clutches of the law. Gates were reported missing, a settie was found located in a tree top, the "dummy cop" on Ferry street near the court house was replaced by a giant packing case, and grim white ghostly marks left mute evidence on plate glass windows of spiritual visitors.

Still, one should not be too hard on the young serenaders, for in one case, at least, they took part in constructive fun. Some of the store windows along the streets shined brighter than ever before, bearing testimony of energetic cleaning in an attempt to clear the glass of last night's soap marks.

Must Write Name On Ballot Tuesday

Persons casting democratic ballots in the election Tuesday must write the name of H. I. Shelley, of Dallas county, if they are to cast a full ballot, according to word received today from Marion Ruppert, secretary of the state democratic executive committee.

Mr. Rushton wired The Daily as follows:

"H. I. Shelley, of Dallas, has been nominated as the Democratic candidate for presidential elector from Fourth district to succeed G. Crawford Bates, deceased. Mr. Bates' death occurred after ballots had been printed and distributed so that it will be necessary for democratic voters to write Shelley's name in over Bates' where it appears on ticket. The chairman requests me to ask all democratic papers to give publicity to this."

Kiwanis Club to Aid Red X Drive

At the meeting Thursday evening the Kiwanis Club voted itself to stand behind the Red Cross in its roll drive. The entertainment committee placed Nov. 22 for ladies night, and preparations are under way to entertain them. The committee on the Country Store Christmas tree benefit program reported itself active.

J. J. Donohue, general claim agent for the L. & N. railroad, will be the chief speaker of the meeting next Thursday evening.

Throng Assembles To Watch Parade of Klansmen

(Associated Press)
NILES, O., Nov. 1.—Sheriff John Thomas said this afternoon that he had reports of four deaths in rioting incident to preparations for a Klan parade here. He said he could not tell how many were wounded but believed that many were hurt and had been taken away.

COLUMBUS, O., Nov. 1.—Governor Donahey at 2:30 this afternoon declared martial law existing at Niles and so notified Colonel Connolly, a National guard officer already at Niles. Colonel Connolly was notified that an infantry company from Youngstown and a machine gun company were enroute to Niles with orders to disperse all crowds. This was understood to prohibit the staging of the K. K. K. parade for this afternoon.

COLUMBUS, O., Nov. 1.—One regiment of the Ohio national guard was ordered mobilized for duty at Niles shortly after one o'clock this afternoon by Governor Donahey, following receipt of official information three three men had been shot and wounded.

Following are the troops ordered mobilized and reported to be uniformed, armed and waiting in armor for orders to move to Niles: 112th engineers of Cleveland; 145th infantry unit from Cleveland, Berea, Canton, Akron, Warren and Youngstown, 135th field artillery, three battalions from Canton and Akron; two cavalry units from Akron and Youngstown.

Approximately 1,100 troops are in the unit ordered mobilized by Governor Donahey.

NILES, O., Nov. 1.—Warfare between the Ku Klux Klan and the Knights of the Flaming Circle, resisting plans for a Klan parade through the city streets, blazed into a series of street disorders today, in which four men were shot and three injured by mob violence.

Three men were shot this afternoon in the third outbreak of the day in the community strife, raging about a parade of the Ku Klux Klan, scheduled for three o'clock.

Joe Mahoney, Dominic Terone and Arthur Davis, all members of the Knights of the Flaming Circle opposed to the Klan, were shot from an automobile about a half mile from an outlying ball park, at which several hundred Klansmen had assembled for the parade.

Major Christie, of Youngstown unit, Ohio National Guard immediately wired Governor Donahey, urging troops be sent.

Sheriff John E. Thomas of Trumbull County, has sworn in more than 100 special deputies this afternoon.

A throng of 5,000 people assembled at an outlying ball park an hour before the scheduled hour for the parade.

Fifty special police, empowered yesterday by Mayor H. C. Kistler were arrested by Thomas forces, disarmed and held in the county jail without bail.

SOUTHERN COMPANY TO SPEND $300,000, REPORT HERE TODAY

Mill Will Be Erected On Bee Line Near Flint Station

LOCAL PRODUCT DECLARED GOOD

Tests Are Said to Have Shown Asphalt Of High Quality

The Southern Rock Asphalt company, holders of asphalt leases in this section, soon will erect a large plant on the Bee Line high way north of Flint about five miles from here, according to a report here Saturday.

Rumors of developments by the company in the Flint neighborhood have been current sometime.

M. S. Bingham, county and city engineer here, stated that he was informed that the Southern Rock Asphalt company is making arrangements to construct a large mill just north of the Bee Line highway, north of Flint, and also will build a "cut" track to their mine, a total investment of from $200,000 to $300,000.

Morgan County asphalt was given a trial on the Scenicville road near here and proved to be an excellent road building product. It was pointed out here today. Local asphalt will be used in reconstructing a section of the Decatur-Mouton road.

Tests made of the product are said to have shown it to be of high grade. The asphalt fields in North Alabama are extensive. They are said to begin near Flint, only a few miles from here, and extend northwestward through this county into Lawrence and Franklin.

Appeal Renewed By Lawrence People

The Daily is in receipt of a communication from W. H. Smith of Town Creek in which he asks that the people of Morgan County be asked again to give their support to the constitutional amendment, to be voted on Tuesday, and which gives several Lawrence County school districts the right to vote on an additional tax for school purposes.

Mr. Smith enclosed the following appeal from the Lawrence County board of education:

Your support of the measure is asked for these reasons:

1. Your vote affects none but the citizens of the three districts and only gives them the privilege of voting the tax upon themselves.
2. Town Creek has built a costly brick building to meet her growing needs. She owes heavily on the building. She is maintaining a nine month accredited high school. Your vote and influence will help her in the struggle.
3. Moulton and Landersville are badly in need of school buildings. Your vote will assist in giving this to their children without cost to you.

Please ask your neighbor to vote with you for the good of these schools.

125 Contestants In Essay Contest

The national essay contest on "Better Home Lighting," sponsored locally by the Alabama Power company and the D. G. Martin Electric company who are offering local prizes in addition to the national prizes, has 125 contestants from the schools of Albany and Decatur, it was announced Saturday.

Attractive prizes are being offered to the winners in the local contest from which list those to be entered in the national contest will be selected.

Albany High Wins Decisively Over Sheffield in Grid Struggle; Score 19-7

The Albany high school football representatives battered and fought their way through a heavier line and backfield to a 19-7 victory over the Sheffield high school Friday afternoon in a thrilling encounter on Cooper-Wells field.

To Pesky Johnson whose voice rings constantly across the field barking Albany's signals go the honors and laurel wreaths of the afternoon. Johnson kept constantly following the ball and one touchdown was the direct result of his vigil when a pass into the arms of Aggie Lee Albany left end slipped into the waiting arms of Pesky who dashed another 15 yards before being halted. Johnson put up a splendid exhibition in the art of returning hostile boots weaving his way down the field and leaving the field strewn with the prone forms of Sheffield tacklers. It was Pesky who smashed across on two occasions with the needed yardage for a touchdown and it was Johnson who kept his teammates in a splendid fighting mood against their heavier antagonists. Giers at fullback also comes in for his share of praise. Giers scored a marker for the Albany outfit and laid Parker low for the remainder of the afternoon when the Sheffield center prepared to stop him on his trip across the last white line. Papenburg showed a superior ability even to Johnson at following the oval. At end he was always in line with the play and recovered two Sheffield fumbles, recovering once after he had smeared a Sheffield back for a loss one of these recovered fumbles became an Albany touchdown within a matter of minutes after Papenburg's play.

In defensive play Spencer, Peterson and Mitchell were outstanding in halting the Sheffield line and end attack. On one occasion Pete intercepted a Sheffield toss and travelled 25 yards behind good interference before being hauled down. The Sheffield part of the afternoon argument was carried admirably by Brooks, Duncan, Harris, Quimby and Jackson. Brooks, Harris and Quimby were the bulk of the Sheffield fight offensively while Duncan and Green stopped practically every effort at the line with Brooks great bulk aiding in the center attack.

Score by quarters.
Sheffield 7 0 0 0—7
Albany 0 6 0 13—19

First Quarter
Quimby kicked to Singleton on the 20 yard line who fumbled without return. Giers took 3 at right guard. Johnson made 4 at left tackle, Giers fumbled and Sheffield recovered, but Sheffield was offside and was penalized 5 yards. Albany's ball 1st down. Johnson got 2 at left guard, Singleton failed at left end as Harris broke through. Johnson took 6 at left guard

A PROCLAMATION BY THE GOVERNOR

WHEREAS, The Legislature of Alabama, at a session held in 1923, has ordered an election by the qualified electors of the State of Alabama upon a certain proposed amendment to the Constitution of Alabama, which is herein set forth, to be held at the general election in November, 1924, and

WHEREAS, Notice of such election, together with the proposed amendment is required by law to be given by proclamation of the Governor; NOW THEREFORE, I, William W. Brandon, Governor of the State of Alabama, do hereby give notice, direct and proclaim that at the general election in November, 1924, an election will be held for the vote of the qualified electors of the State of Alabama, in the manner, form and places required by law, upon the following amendment to the Constitution of Alabama, viz:

"The County of Mobile, through its constituted governing authorities, may levy and collect for public school purposes a rate of taxation, on the property situated therein, not exceeding in the total of any one year, one-fifth (1/5) of one (1) per centum of the value of such property as assessed as provided by the Constitution of Alabama and the statutes now or hereafter enacted pursuant to the said Constitution of Alabama, which said one-fifth (1/5) of one (1) per centum shall be in addition to taxes levied and collected under and pursuant to the authority of Section 215 of the Constitution of Alabama of 1901, and axes levied and collected under and pursuant to Article XIX of the Constitution of Alabama of 1901 which article XIX was added to the said Constitution by amendment; and existing laws attempting or purporting to authorize, empower and direct the said constituted authorities of the County of Mobile to levy and assess such a special tax in addition to the axes levied and collected under and pursuant to Section 215 of the Constitution as aforesaid and taxes levied and collected under and pursuant to Article XIX of the Constitution as aforesaid, are hereby validated and confirmed."

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have caused to set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State to be affixed to this Proclamation, in the City of Montgomery, on this 8th day of August, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-four.

WM. W. BRANDON, Governor.
By the Governor: S. H. BLAN, Secretary of State.

and then kicked 40 yards to Harris who fumbled and recovered when Lee hit him. Freeman fumbled for a 1 yard loss. Brooks made 3 and a pass Quimby to Freeman made 10 yards and a first down. Brooks made 9 in two slashes into the line. Harris fumbled and recovered. Harris made 6 over his own left end and 1st down. Quimby took 3, Freeman made a first down over right tackle. Quimby made 3 at his own right end being stopped by Giers. Brooks made 2 at left tackle being halted hard by Peterson Ball now on Albany's 20 yard line Quimby raced around his own left end for a touchdown when Tuck missed him. Quimby kicked the goal. Quimby kicked off to Johnson who returned 15 yards through broken field. Giers was stopped by Brooks as the quarter was up.

Second Quarter

Giers made 3 over right tackle. Johnson hit the line for 3 yards and fumbled, Tuck recovering for Albany. Johnson kicked 25 yards and the ball fell dead. Harris made 3 to the left side and 6 over the right side. Brooks made a first down through center. Lee threw Quimby at left end for a loss. Freeman lost 1 at right end when Peterson broke through. A pass was blocked by Giers. Freeman kicked 20 yards out of bounds. Johnson ran 30 yards around his own left end down the sidelines. J. Williams went in for Quimby. Johnson made 4 at left tackle. Giers failed at left tackle. Tuck made 1 at right tackle. Giers passed six yards to Lee who was roughed and the ball slid into Johnson's arms who sidestepped his way for another 10 yards. Sheffield was penalized 15 yards for interference with the receiver. Johnson made 1 on a lateral pass around left end. Giers slipped off right tackle for 2. Johnson reversed his field after going through the right side of the line and placed the ball on Sheffield's 10 yard line. Sheffield took time out. Johnson slipped 8 yards over Sheffield left tackle. He then hit the other tackle for a touchdown. Tuck failed at the try for point. Singleton kicked off the ball rolling over the goal line. Sheffield's ball on her own 20 yard line. Harris lost six as Mitchell tackled. Harris punted 40 yards to Johnson who swung back 10 yards. Tuck made 2 at the line and the half ended.

Third Quarter

C. Williams went in for Freeman. Singleton kicked off 20 yards to Duncan with 5 yards return. C. Williams made 5, J. Williams took 2. C. Williams made a first down over Mitchell. J. Williams fumbled and Papenburg covered the oval for Albany. Giers and Singleton failed at the line. Tuck took six on a fake. Singleton made a first down on a lateral pass from Giers. Johnson sliced 3 at the line. A pass was incomplete. Giers made 1 yard and Tuck's try for a field goal fell short. Harris made a beautiful return of the ball after being tackled by Lee loose and ran 10 yards before being stopped. Brooks hammered the line in four downs for a first down but his backfield was in motion on the last down and Sheffield was penalized 5 yards. Harris booted 40 yards to Johnson who slipped through a field of tacklers for a 20 yard return. A pass failed, Giers made 5 at right end, Johnson hit the line for 3 Giers made 6 over right end. Johnson did a bit of neat footwork circling his own left end for a scant gain of 30 yards and placed the ball on Sheffield's one foot line. Johnson hit the line and gained six inches. Tuck failed as the heavier team piled up the light Albany forwards. Giers failed and the ball remained six inches from the coveted white line, as the quarter ended.

Fourth Quarter

Albany's ball 4th down and six inches to go for a touchdown. Johnson rumbled left tackle for the touchdown. Tuck kicked a pretty field goal Freeman was substituted for C. Williams. Quimby replaced J. Williams in the backfield. Singleton kicked off to Quimby on the 10 yard line and the fleet back returned 20 yards to the 30 yard line. Freeman fumbled a lateral pass and Papenburg slipped in to recover. Johnson twisted 15 through the heart of the line. Giers made 4 at right tackle. Johnson failed. Giers made 3 at left tackle. Albany took time out for a conference. Giers hurtled through left tackle for the touchdown and laid out Parker who tackled Woodall went in for Parker but replaced Brooks in the backfield while Brooks took the pivotal position. Tucks try for point was blocked. Singleton kicked to Quimby who returned for a neat 30 yards. Sheffield was penalized 15 yards on the next play, but Quimby passed to Freeman for 10 yards and Albany was penalized 15 yards for roughing. A pass was incomplete. Murphy replaced Green. Freeman made a first down through the line. Harris made 2 and Peterson intercepted the next pass larger numbers of fathers and sons attending the various events. The movement has now become world-wide in its influence and service. Many nations have adopted the father and son idea, conducting programs similar to those recommended in this country. "The father and son week, nationally and locally, falls on November 9th to 16th with the big father and son banquet coming due on the night of the 14th. The local association plans to make this banquet a grand success."

at the permit for the parade bereaved has not been in his office since yesterday afternoon.

All the victims of shooting suffered slight wounds, from which it is expected they will recover.

Sheriff John S. Thomas, of Trumbull County, and Chief of Police L. J. Rounds joined today in a second urgent appeal to Governor Donahay for troops to preserve order in Niles after a second street clash, in which two robed Klansmen were attacked by several scores of excited pedestrians.

The two Klansmen were seized near the headquarters of the Knights of the Flaming Circle, which has arrayed itself against a parade of Klansmen arranged for this afternoon.

The crowd of more than a score of men, dragged their victims from an open car, beat them and ordered them out of the neighborhood. Feeling ran high in the city after the clash.

Mayor H. C. Kistler, absent from his office since yesterday afternoon, was reported in Warren for a conference with Dr. C. D. Hart, the titular head of the Klan in this county, on steps to maintain peace.

A move to halt the parade by injunction was underway in another quarter. Hagbills, urging "free born Americans" to "refuse to submit to the dictations of foreigners" were circulated this morning.

COLUMBUS, O., Nov. 1.—Major Kistler, of Niles in a telephone conversation with Governor Donahay early this afternoon told the chief executive about the shooting at Niles, saying "even now there is a mob outside my office to start trouble when I go out."

YOUNGSTOWN, O., Nov. 1.—Chief of Police Kedgwin Powell this afternoon ordered every Youngstown policeman on duty to patrol roads leading into the city from Niles, to prevent disorder at Niles from spreading to factions here.

Mrs. Guyton Asks Help For Auction

This afternoon, beginning at 5 o'clock sharp, the auction of the $50 suit or merchandise donated by W. W. Rahm, will take place and the following appeal has been issued by Mrs. Elizabeth Guyton, superintendent of the hospital urging a large attendance:

The auction this afternoon is for a very worthy cause and we sincerely hope all friends of the Benevolent Society hospital will be on hand at 5 o'clock at the store of the Rahm Clothing company and participate in the event. All of the proceeds of the auction are for the hospital fund and we appeal to the generosity of the public at large. Let us say that no bid on the merchandise will be accepted in any amount over 5 cents. The sum is so small that we feel everyone can participate and help the cause."

BUREAU FOR SHOALS

WASHINGTON, Nov. 1.—Henry Ford's withdrawal of his offer for Muscle Shoals in no way changes the attitude of the American Farm Bureau Federation toward the development of this hydro-electric power for the purpose of agriculture in the time of peace and the manufacture of munitions in time of war."

This statement was made by E. B. Reid acting Washington representative of the federation is contained in the federations weekly news letter issued today.

and traveled 25 yards down the field. Singleton lost 5 yards at end Johnson was stopped at right tackle. A pass to Lee failed. Tuck tried a field goal and missed. Ball in play on Sheffield's 20 yard line. Papenburg went in for Zanvit. Quimby raced 6 at left end. A pass from Quimby to Harris was good for 6 yards and a first down. Brooks passed over Quimby's head and Papenburg recovered as the game ended.

ONLY PACKARD CAN BUILD A PACKARD

"I CAN'T AFFORD ANYTHING LESS"

If you debate with yourself whether you can afford to enjoy Packard satisfaction, remember this:

A judicious investment depends on the factors of economy, and economy in motor cars involves long life, high re-sale value and low maintenance costs, as well as fuel and tire mileage. Packard is economical in all these respects.

When you have given all the facts due consideration you will say, as thousands of others say: "Only Packard can build a Packard and I can't afford anything less."

DAILY PRAYER.—Just as the sun's rays make golden the linings of the blackest clouds, may the light of Thy Love illuminate our darkened lives.

There is a very wide difference between a religion of service and one of services.

One of the most dangerous gifts if exercised freely is the "gift of reason."

When credit becomes normal—it is mighty.

Business will probably be looking down this season as skirt styles grow shorter.

The burglar who used to administer chloroform now uses an ax. Another proof of the advance in modern surgery.

With all due consideration—if the Democrats had a very large "slush fund" would they make such a fuss about that fund of the Republicans.

The fact many cannot make speeches does not seem to prevent them from making a wordy demonstration of the fact.

The fact the League of Nations has prevented bloodshed makes no appeal to the Republicans as they have "done said they were again it."

What we can't figure is how a woman can hide a cold under a two-inch square piece of linen when a man can't get by with a blanket.

Our statistician figures that Eve ate the fatted calf just before the first October frost. If she hadn't invented the overcoat, where would we all be now?

Watch the paper for the largest pre-election claims from all quarters until Tuesday and then notice what a silence there will be in many quarters after the votes are counted.

In passing it might be noted that Chairman Shaver of the National Democratic committee, Chairman Butler, who holds the same position with the Republicans, and Senator LaFollette have predicted victory for their respective parties, November 4.

SCARING THE VOTERS.

The Democratic news information department of the Christian Science Monitor wisely suggests that the "conspiracy" talk started by the Republicans was simply a "strategic" move on their part to scare timid people into voting for Coolidge and Dawes. It served, however, a purpose that was welcomed, but probably not anticipated. It enabled Republicans to avoid discussion of real issues. It is put in evidence that without "chaos" for a subject they might have been compelled to defend certain acts of which the party in power is guilty. The Constitution is a much safer subject than the Fordney tariff, the Mellon plan, the Esch-Cummins Act, the "scandals," Newberryism, farm relief, team work between the President and Congress, party solidarity, religious intolerance, or any other of the things that John W. Davis has been discussing daily. The Republicans ought to be friends of the Constitution, for truly it has been their friend in this year of need.—Selma Times.

THE MENACE OF FIRES OUT-OF-DOORS.

The warning issued by the County Game Warden, the timeliness of which is corroborated by many farmers and rural-dwellers, urging care and caution in reference to fires in the woods and fields at this time should be heeded as a measure of the utmost safety in every community. The long drougn has made fire a terrible menace to the great out-of-doors. The entire face of the country is in a highly combustible state and only a spark is needed to work untold loss and damage. A number of small fires in this section occurring recently attest the dangerous nature of the situation and it should be everybody's business to extinguish fires in the woods and fields wherever seen.

A cigarette smoker strolling through the National Forest near Los Angeles recently tossed a match in some leaves and started a conflagration that cost the Government $50,000. There was a forest fire that lasted two weeks and had to be fought by 2,000 men. Thirty thousand acres of recreational ground were turned into blackened stumps, as barren as the Sahara Desert, devoid of animals, birds or flowers. The burning of our woodland areas always has this disastrous secondary effect, it deprives all wild life of a habitation.—Selma Times.

A TRAIN OF THOUGHTS

For the Sabbath and Other Days

By J. E. Blair

Temptations strike at perfectly good desires. For example we are tempted in the desires to enjoy, to own things, and to accomplish purposes. We fall for temptations when we let a desire "go beyond bounds set by God." The sad, real problems of life arise after yielding to temptation—after sin has appeared and cast its ugly shadow of physical and spiritual death on life's path. Now if sin were as "easy" as its victims, it could be gotten rid of in short order. If sin were connected with mathematics, it could be "eliminated" in ways known to the mathematicians. If sin were like "cold" it could be driven out by heat. If it were "darkness" we could turn on the light. If sin were breaking laws, people might learn to obey anti-sin laws. But sin is SEPARATION from God. Did not Eve and Adam withdraw from God's presence in the garden of Eden after their very first sin? It is said God sends none to hell, but that sinners go there to be away from God. In a word sin means eternal separation from God. But enough as to how terrible and awful sin is. A more interesting question is: "How can we get rid of sin. Answer. By getting rid of the sinner. Not by killing him, in a physical sense, certainly—but by killing the sinful spirit. But how? Like a dentist kills a nerve? Not exactly—rather by discharging "the old man" and allowing the New Man, Christ Jesus to enthroned himself in our hearts. To restate the whole gospel in a line "Ye must be born again." Christ's words to a man who is thought to have been ashamed and afraid to come to Jesus by day. In the everlasting credit of our poor fallen race, all connection with the problem of sin, be it said to its members who are or were anything like normal have tried to separate themselves from the body of death called sin. Some in books at least have refused to yield to some sins. Here is a beautiful story from the "Arabian Nights" to prove how people have at least dreamed of doing right instead of wrong. In the last one of his adventures as recorded in the "Arabian Nights" Sinbad the Sailor while working as a servant on a lonely island finds great wealth. The treasure is a great heap of elephant's tusks. In reading the story even Christians have been known to think, Sinbad should have seized the treasure and made for a place of freedom. But as a loyal servant, Sinbad showed the precious ivory to his master. Sinbad did not fall for the sin of covetousness. But that was only a story. The real Sinbad took the treasure. But suppose we have escaped some sins—we have not escaped them all. S. D. Gordon says all sins come under three heads—"Lust," "I," and "Money"—enjoyment, selfishness and power. Christ escaped them all. "For in that He, Himself, hath suffered being tempted (yet without sin) He is able to succor them that are tempted."—Hebrews 2-18.

SEEKING TO BREAK NAVAL OIL RESERVE LEASES.

Show JOE COTTER, FREDERICK KELLOGG, E. J. DOHENY & FRANK HOGAN (Below) JUDGE P. J. MCCORMICK, BOB BURKE, ATIEL POMERENE, MR. CAMARILLO & OWEN ROBERTS

Lack of legal authority to grant leases on naval oil reserves in California, as well as alleged fraud, are the grounds on which the Government is seeking, in Los Angeles courts, before Judge Paul J. McCormick, to break the leases granted by ex-Secretary of the Interior Albert B. Fall to Edward L. Doheny, millionaire oil operator. The Doheny legal staff consists of Joe Cotter, Frederick Kellogg and Frank Hogan, while the Government is represented by United States District Attorney Joseph Burke, ex-Senator Atiel Pomerene, of Ohio; Assistant District Attorney Camarillo and Owen J. Roberts.

WHY GO TO CHURCH?

For worship and instruction in Godliness. For growth in grace and in the knowledge of our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. For prayer in a spiritual atmosphere. For Fellowship with those of kindred faith, answering the craving of the human heart for congenial companionship. For the privilege of singing and hearing harmonious praises sung, and music rendered unto our Lord. For comfort in sorrow, strength in weakness, brightness in gloom and hope in despair. For that peace of heart, mind and soul that passeth understanding, the Church is the never failing fountain from which flows all these and countless blessings: Why, of course, go to church.—T. M. Saturday Club. Mrs. W. J. Garnett.

AFTERNOON BRIDGE

The first bridge party to be given at the Valley Country Club was the beautiful pre-nuptial affair in honor of Miss Mabel Pride, who will be married on November Sixth to Dr. John C. Bragg, when Miss Mary Harvey was hostess.

Southern smilax was used in profusion on the mantle, console tables and sconces an centering on the old fashioned mantles were baskets of large yellow and white chrysanthemums tied with tulle adding to the beauty of the Country club room where fourteen tables were arranged for the game.

A handsome bridge luncheon was presented to Mrs. W. E. Crawford for first prize. Mrs. George Wallace received second prize, a combination of luster powder and perfume container. Mrs. D. C. Almon cut the console and a lovely souvenir was received by Miss Pride as a memento of the party. The unique favors were miniature hat boxes in yellow and green the color scheme used throughout in which were mints in hat shape.

The tally cards and the plate of delicious refreshments were suggestive of brides and they were in yellow and green. The guest list follows: Miss Mabel Pride, Mrs. H. D. Greer, Mrs. Thompson, Mrs. of Memphis, Tenn., Miss Helen Russell, Miss Blumette Wallace, Miss Roline Teasley, Miss Marjory Beard, Miss Polly Robinson, Mrs. J. R. Smiley, Mrs. A. E. Humphrey, Mrs. R. SPOOK PARTY

At the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Strickland on Seventh avenue west, Tyne and Hugh Strickland entertained about fifty of their friends and members of the junior Christian Endeavor of the West-side church at a Halloween party on Friday evening. The home was decorated in orange and black crepe paper. In the living room and parlor where games were played, the lights were covered with spooky Jack-O'-Lanterns and streamers from the floors and windows and mantles met in the center over the lanterns. Pumpkins, black cats, bats and owls were in evidence everywhere.

An immense spook presided over two large bowls of kisses and in one corner of the parlor a ten was formed of cornstalks, where an old witch old fortunes. The stairs were twined with Halloween colors and a Jack-O'-Lantern guarded the landing.

Biting apples were enjoyed and ghost stories were told by a real live ghost affording much merriment. Prizes were given Carl Thomas Robinson, Katherine Baxter and Tom Robinson for the three best costumes.

At the close of an evening of fun some made candy, peanuts and apples were served to the happy youngsters.

MRS. HARRIS COMPLIMENT

Another pre-nuptial affair given in honor of Miss Mabel Pride, bride-elect of November Sixth, was the bridge compliment of Mrs. Frank Harris on Thursday afternoon. Her spacious and hospitable home was unusually beautiful for the occasion in pink and green, Jackson vine and pink carnations being used in profusion.

Mrs. H. D. Greer met the guests at the door and she wore a blue and white brocade chiffon with grey accessories. Mrs. Harris wore a chiffon and lace costume and a corsage of pink carnations. Miss Pride wore purple velvet and her corsage was of pink roses and Mrs. Reed Rogers, who presided at the punch bowl was in black with a corsage of pink carnations. The punch bowl was in the center of the dining table and it was embedded in pink carnations intertwined with vines.

At bridge Miss Helen Bynum of Courtland received the first prize, for top score and it was a handpainted tray and Mrs. H. E. Dryden Jr. cut low for consolation, a handpainted perfume bottle. The honoree was presented a beautiful large silver steak platter.

An elaborate two course menu was served at the conclusion of the games to the following who accepted Mrs. Harris hospitality: Miss Pride, Mrs. H. D. Greer, Mrs. Thompson, Mrs. of Memphis, Tenn., Miss Helen Russell, Miss Blumette Wallace, Mrs. B. P. Wallace, Mrs. Ingold Timberlake, Mrs. Early Phinizy, Miss Marjory Beard, Miss Helen Bynum of Courtland, Mrs. W. B. Markstein, Mrs. J. W. Troy, Mrs. Allene King, Mrs. R. N. Harris, Mrs. W. E. HALLOWEEN PARTY

On Friday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Stevens on Wadsworth street Marjorie Stevens delightfully entertained a number of her friends at a Halloween party.

The home was dimly lighted with Jack-O'-Lanterns and other Halloween decorations were used. Live ghosts walking about caused many shrieks and shrills. After the Halloween games, refreshments were served Mrs. Stevens was assisted in entertaining by Mrs. R. E. Stewart and Mrs. T. M. Stevens. Those enjoying this hospitality were, Mary Manly, Elizabeth Chandler, Emma Lee Johnson, Ruth Teague, Onia Whitworth, Alice Owen, Virginia Spear, Marjorie Stevens, Willodene Stevens,

The following officers were elected: Mrs. A. T. Hanson, general superintendent, Mrs. E. L. Hayes secretary-treasurer; Mrs. W. J. Garnett, leader of Young People; Mrs. C. E. Malone, librarian, Mrs. R. L. Sherrill, stewardship; Mrs. Fred Simpson, personal service; Mrs. J. R. W. Clements, W. M. U. organizer; Mrs. Smith Campbell, Mrs. Tomlinson of Danville, Mrs. T. E. Drinkard of Falkville; Mrs. E. W. Lee of Albany and Mrs. W. R. Neville of Albany, district superintendents. Mrs. W. H. Simpson who is one of the leaders of the union has the life appointment of assistant superintendent.

MRS. E. L. DOHENY SPRINGS SENSATION

MRS. E. L. DOHENY & E. L. DOHENY, JR.

After her son, E. L. Doheny, Jr., had refused to testify in Angeles court, where the Government is seeking to annul leases on oil lands held by his father, the multi-millionaire oil magnate, E. L. Doheny sprung a sensation when she produced the misadventure of ex-Secretary of the Interior Albert B. Fall to the note given by Fall to her husband. Doheny declares the $100,000 loan, but the Government alleged it was a bribe. Mrs. Doheny testified the signature had been torn off so that if anything happened her husband or herself, Fall would not be embarrassed by demanding repayment.

WHITE SATIN & GEORGETTE TRIMMED IN ORCHID-SILVER RIBBON & CHINCHILLA

You may not know it, but when a moving picture star is called upon to play the part of a bride there is as much excitement about her wedding gown as there would be were she really selecting her own wedding gown for her own real wedding.

When Bebe Daniels, the Paramount star, heard that she was to be a bride in "Dance of the Hours," she exhibited as much concern as though it were the real thing! After many conferences with her costumer, and great deliberation, Miss Daniels chose the empire mode. The empire mode is a more dignified, more formal development of the directoire mode (which is enjoying so much popularity this year). It expresses a classic mood that is very charming.

The gown is shown in the photograph above. It is made with a white satin slip of the highest, most brilliant sheen. Over this is a white georgette top, with high waist banded with a wide sash of orchid-silver metal ribbon. Flow-ers hang from this, all made of brilliant tines of silver cloth—silver, green-silver, lavender-silver, etc. There is one sleeve, on the right arm, shirred, and banded in four rows of chinchilla. Chinchilla borders the georgette train. A headress of orchid-silver ribbon and chinchilla is very queenly.

The combination of this color and this fur is exquisite. An old-fashioned necklace is worn with this costume.

The bridesmaids' costumes in the picture are more old-fashioned than modern in spirit. Finely accordeon pleated, high-waisted frocks, with white lace gimpes, and bows of orchid and silver ribbon. The costumes are orchid-pink. Flower hats with plumes, and long stiffs—oh, yes, there are long stiffs—

The little flower girls have straight frocks, polka-dotted with pinkish daisies, appliqued; big poke bonnets, and low, heel-less slippers. Big bows adorn the hats and send down long streamers.

Charges President Not In Accord With 'Liberal Policies'

made public by testimony before the Borah investigating committee.

NEW YORK, Nov. 1.—The executive committee of the central trades and labor council of greater New York, representing 700,000 members, has issued the following statement, endorsing John W. Davis for president.

"We, the members of the executive committee of the central trades and labor council of Greater New York and vicinity, representing 700,000 members, after deliberate consideration, are taking the following action in conjunction with the building trades council of New York, Long Island and vicinity.

"We hereby endorse John W. Davis for president of the United States. We recommend to our entire membership and to all interested in the cause of labor, to vote and work for the election of Davis.

"In a September meeting, we endorsed the candidacy of Senator La Follette. We now realize that Mr. La Follette has no chance of being elected president and that a vote cast for him in this state, or anywhere in the east is a vote cast for the enemies of labor—Coolidge and Dawes.

"No clear thinking man or woman can compare Davis and Coolidge and their records, without coming to the inevitable conclusion that in every way Davis is the better candidate not only for the laboring man and woman but for every citizen of the country who is not interested in special privilege.

"We have studied with great care the record of John W. Davis while a member of the legislature of the state of West Virginia while a member of congress and while solicitor-general of the United States, and that record has been consistent in the advocacy of progressive measures.

"We have been led to this study by the utterances of John W. Davis and the courageous position taken by him on the vital issues in this campaign.

"In congress he not only wrote the labor provisions of the Clayton anti-trust act, but argued in July 9, 1912, the constitutionality of that portion of the act, providing for trial by jury in contempt cases, where the contempt is not committed in the presence of the court. His republican opponents argued that this was unconstitutional. Davis showed upon that occasion his great ability as a lawyer in not only drafting, but arguing for this measure and he has only within the week been sustained by the supreme court of the United States. This act is the magna charta of labor and labor owes to John W. Davis an everlasting debt of gratitude.

"Combine this decision with Mr. Davis' utterance on the abuse of the use of injunctions in labor union labor disputes, and labor has achieved a victory that could only have been accomplished through the great intellectual forces of a man like Davis.

"Heretofore a man charged with violation of an injunction was tried by the judge granting the injunction constituting in that judge all the powers of judge, prosecutor and jury.

"Labor now has extended to it the same rights that any other American has, to be tried by a jury of his peers.

"We believe that we are serving not only the cause of labor, but of the great mass of the common people of America in advocating the election of Davis.

"John W. Davis has demonstrated on the stump his position on every public question. He has not remained silent concerning a single issue of this campaign. He has publicly announced that he will answer the question of every man, woman and child in these United States. One cannot study his record or his utterances without becoming convinced of the absolute necessity of electing him president, and we believe that the people of the United States are fortunate that a man like Davis is willing to trust aside personal fortune in order to serve.

"We have been presented within the last three and a half years with a situation where many officials of the government have used their offices for personal gain.

"In his public life Mr. Davis has had but one client—the people of the United States—and he has served them with all his great intellectual force with no thought except that of service.

"Parties and men are to be judged by past performances. The best indication of what they will do in the future is what they have done in the past. Judged by the record the choice inevitably leads to a vote for Davis.

"We have taken this action, not alone because it is our judgment, but because we have been requested by our membership to place ourselves squarely on record for the election of John W. Davis and Al Smith."

A PROCLAMATION BY THE GOVERNOR

WHEREAS, the Legislature of Alabama, at a session held in 1923, has ordered an election, by the qualified electors of the State of Alabama upon a certain proposed amendment to the Constitution of Alabama, which is herein set forth, to be held at the general election in November, 1924, and

WHEREAS, Notice of such election, together with the proposed amendment, was given by law to be given by proclamation of the Governor; NOW, THEREFORE, I, WILLIAM W. BRADON, Governor of the State of Alabama, do hereby give notice, direct and proclaim that at the general election in November, 1924, an election will be held for the vote of the qualified electors of the State of Alabama, in the manner, form and places required by law, upon the following amendment to the Constitution of Alabama, viz:

"Section 194 1-2. No person who honorably served in the Military or Naval service of the United States between January 1, 1917, and November 11, 1918, shall be required to pay the poll tax mentioned in the Constitution of Alabama; such persons shall be exempt from the payment of all poll taxes which have accrued or may hereafter accrue. This section shall be self-executing and retroactive. The Judge of Probate shall issue certificates of exemption from the payment of such poll taxes to the persons entitled thereto under such rules and regulations as may be prescribed by the Governor."

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the great Seal of the State of Alabama to be affixed at the Capitol, in the City of Montgomery, on this, the 8th day of August, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-four.

(Seal) WM. W. BRANDON, Governor.

Abruptly then he turned away, and by a gesture he ordered all to return the slave to her place among the others. Leaning on the arm of Tsamanni he took some steps towards the entrance, then halted, and turned again to Fenzileh:

"To thy litter," he bade her peremptorily, rebuking her thus before all, "and get thee to the house as becomes a seemly Moslem woman. Nor ever again let thyself be seen roving the public places about."

She obeyed him instantly, without a murmur; and he himself lingered at the gates with Tsamanni until her litter had passed out, escorted by Ayoub and Marzak walking each on one side of it and neither daring to meet the angry eye of the Basha.

Asad looked sourly after that litter, a sneer on his heavy lips. "As her beauty wanes so her presumption waxes," he growled. "She is growing old, Tsamanni—old and lean and shrewish, and no fit mate for a Member of the Prophet's House. It were perhaps a pleasing thing in the sight of Allah that we replaced her."

And then, referring obviously to that other one, his eye turning towards the pent-house the curtains of which were being drawn again, he changed his tone.

"Didst thou mark, O Tsamanni, with what a grace she moved?—lithely and nobly as a young gazelle. Verily, so much beauty was never created by the All-Wise to be cast into the Pit."

"May it not have been sent to comfort some True-Believer?" wondered the subtle wazzer. "To Allah all things are possible."

"Why else, indeed?" said Asad. "It was written, and even as none may obtain what is not written, none may avoid what is. I am resolved. Stay thou here, Tsamanni. Remain for the outcry and purchase her. She shall be taught the True Faith. She shall be saved from the furnace."

The command had come, the thing that Tsamanni had so ardently desired.

He licked his lips. "And the price, my lord?" he asked, in a small voice.

"Price?" quoth Asad. "Have I not bid thee purchase her? Bring her to me, though her price be a thousand phillips."

"A thousand phillips!" echoed Tsamanni amazed. "Allah is great!"

But already Asad had left his side and passed out under the arched gateway, where the crowd was groveling anew at sight of him.

It was a fine thing for Asad to bid him remain for the sale. But the dala would part with no slave until the money was forthcoming, and Tsamanni had no considerable sum upon his person. Therefore in the wake of his master he set out forthwith to the Kasbah. It wanted still an hour before the sale would be held and he had time and to spare in which to go and return.

It happened, however, that Tsamanni was malicious, and that the hatred of Fenzileh which so long he had consumed in silence and dissembled under fawning smiles and profound salaams included also her servants. There was none in all the world of whom he entertained a greater contempt than her sleek and greasy eunuch Ayoub-el-Samin of the majestic, rolling gait and fat, supercilious lips.

It was written, too, that in the courtyard of the Kasbah he should stumble upon Ayoub, who indeed had by his mistress's commands been set to watch for the wazzer. The fat fellow rolled forward, his hands supporting his paunch, his little eyes agleam.

"Allah increase thy health, Tsamanni," was his courteous greeting. "Thou bearest news?"

"News? What news?" quoth Tsamanni. "In truth none that will gladden thy mistress."

"Merciful Allah! What now? Dost it concern that Frankish slave-girl?"

"By the Koran thou tremblest, Ayoub!" Tsamanni mocked him. "Thy soft fat is all a-quivering; and well it may, for thy days are numbered, O father of nothing."

"Dost deride me, dog?" came the other's voice, shrill now with anger.

"Callest me dog? Thou?" Deliberately Tsamanni spat upon his shadow. "Go tell thy mistress that I am bidden by my lord to buy the Frankish girl. Tell her that my lord will take her to wife, even as he took Fenzileh, that he may lead her into the True Belief and cheat Shaitan of so fair a jewel. Add that I am bidden to buy her though she cost my lord a thousand phillips. Hear her that message, O father of wind, and may Allah increase thy paunch!"

And he was gone, lithe, active, and mocking.

"May thy sons perish and thy daughters become harlots," roared the eunuch, maddened at once by this evil news and the insult with which it was accompanied.

But Tsamanni only laughed as he answered him over his shoulder—

"Thou art a good salesman."

You have to pay a good salesman a neat salary. Do you consider newspaper advertising a salesman? Then make out a monthly appropriation for newspaper advertising and watch the sales grow.

The want columns offer a splendid opportunity to the man who wants work and to the man who wants help. Advertise today its only small sum that you will be glad to have spent. It is a wise investment.

COALING IN WINTER

Is a Serious Problem---
Unless you have ready for immediate use your full Winters Supply.

These chilly mornings are but a suggestion of the colder weather we will have a little later on, then your furnace or stove will become lifeless and unfit for good home heating.

Now is the time to prepare your heating facilities for the change in season so as to avoid loss of time and ruffled temper when the first cold snap hits and your furnace refuses to take poor grade coals.

Piper Little Cahaba coals are of superior quality and especially suited to our climate. We sell several sizes but only one standard quality, the highest grade. If you want the best possible grade of winter coal use your telephone and send in your order. When they are received they will be filled promptly and properly.
